We are putting out a call for funding for meditation master and spiritual teacher, Rishi Maa. Sudden health issues resulting from poorly executed root canals have compromised the bone tissue in her jaw, causing a systemic compromise to her health that poses a trajectory of severe repercussions. Lab results indicate the necessity for both immediate intervention and ongoing extensive treatment. Her health insurance will not cover her treatment plan, which requires a collaborative dental and medical approach to assure the success of her oral surgery, with extensive post treatment needed to reverse the damage done by toxicity of the leaking root canals. The costs of her needed procedures is exorbitant, but critically necessary. With each day that passes, this emergency is taking a serious toll on her strength.

This is our defining moment to give back in a meaningful and selfless manner. Now more than ever, we are called to support the living rishis of our time, especially the rarity of one who embodies the illumination of the divine feminine in the profound way that Rishi Devra exemplifies.

We have witnessed her example of virtual sainthood of selflessness by tirelessly giving to others. Her life's work and teachings embody a historic repository of literary and humanitarian endeavor, as well as the phenomena of the spiritual Shakti that she bestows upon us to hasten our awakening. We are reaching out to the spiritual and meditation community and especially to all those who know and love the Rishi to support her in the way that she truly deserves. After the treatments, Rishi Maa will need to take a 6-8 week healing sabbatical at a minimum.

This is a Clarion Call for all of us who have known this brilliant light, as well as the spiritual community the world over to come together for the salvation of this Rishi Mother, who is a rare jewel among jewels as a master teacher, healer and author of profound depth and loving grace. To allow the danger of losing this enlightened master, or allow her to suffer irrevocable damage to her health is unthinkable. Not only is she an enlightened master whose capacity to affect planetary progression holds unimaginable potential, she is also one of the few female spiritual masters in the west who have attained her degree of illumination.

We join you in the realization that we are each called to make a major leap forward, to reverse the seeds of involution and illusion that have entrapped humanity in a fear-based paradigm. It is this reversal to light, truth and love that will become the catalyst, which will finally enable us to reach the tipping point for the creation of new planetary paradigms, opening the flow of abundance for one and all.

Rishi Maa has given and given and given for decades ongoing and the most basic principle of right balance is calling forth to be met in a new way. Having said that, this is an opportunity for each of us to align and unify on behalf of our Rishi to assure that not only does her health receive the best of care but also her ongoing planetary work, endeavors and projects here in the Phoenix area. We can each attest to how important she has been for our own personal growth. This is an opportunity for each of us to not only give back in a tremendous and fearless way, but to also personally experience through the empowering flow of true divine giving and receiving that will not only change our personal lives, but will also change the world.

Give generously, give now and please continue to give on an ongoing basis. All gifts large and small will indeed make a difference and we deeply thank you in advance for your wisdom of generosity!

Blessings,

Jack West
